NALSA- MOOT COURT PROBLEM – 2021

The Mahapradesh Law Colleges Managements' Association

Vs

The Bar Council of Mahishmati & Another

Mahapradesh is one of the States of the Union of Mahishmati, governed by Constitution similar to that of The Constitution of India. The State government decided to conduct CET for admission in to Law courses from the academic year 2016-17 onwards through Government Resolution No. 111 dated 01-01-2016 and informed all law colleges/Universities, which are offering law courses stating that the admission process for 1st year of 3 and 5 year LL.B Courses will be done through the CET known as 'Mahapradesh Common Entrance Test-Law'. The State Govt. also informed that the law colleges/Universities which are having Government Permission, University Affiliation and the Approval of The Bar Council of Mahishmati (hereinafter referred as BCM) are only being allotted candidates. The government through its circular directed all law colleges to obtain the necessary approvals from the respondent No.1, i.e., the BCM by remitting the prescribed inspection fee within the specified time. Being aggrieved by these conditions, The Mahapradesh Law Colleges Managements Association filed a Writ Petition in the Hon'ble Supreme Court against BCM and the State of Mahapradesh and sought the relief of allotment of candidates to all Law Colleges which were duly permitted by the Government and Universities and further prayed to direct the BCM, and the State Government to refund the inspection fee collected by the BCM with interest and to declare that 'no approval is needed' from the BCM.

The petitioner association contended that its Law Colleges cannot be compelled to get approval of BCM as there is no such statutory compulsion either under Mahishmati University Grants Commission Act, The Advocates Act, 1961 or Mahapradesh Universities Act, 1994 subsequently replaced with Mahapradesh Public Universities Act,2016. Further the BCM is not entitled to fix and collect the inspection fee without consulting the stakeholders. The petitioner's association expressed its serious concerns about the competency, integrity and honesty of Inspection Teams of BCM. Further it has contended that the statutory duties/functions of the BCM are to regulate the legal profession only. The respondent BCM has stated that it has derived the authority from The Advocates Act, 1961 and the Rules framed there under from time to time to regulate and maintain the standards of legal education. The respondent BCM further submitted that the students who are admitted and passed out from such colleges without approval from BCM will not be eligible or permitted to enroll as Advocates. It further stated that the petitioner and the State Government will have to face severe consequences for such unlawful admissions. The second respondent State Government categorically submitted its say stating that the respondent no.1 has no role to play except to confine to its functions as per 3 Sec.7 (1) (h) (i) of The Advocates Act,1961. Further it has stated that during the pendency of the present Writ it has withdrawn the circular compelling the Law Colleges to obtain approval from the BCM. The said case is posted for final arguments of Petitioner and Respondent No.1.

ISSUES BEFORE THE SUPREME COURT:

1. Whether the Rules of Legal Education, 2008 framed by the BCM be declared null and void to the extent that they are in contradiction with the provisions of The Advocates Act, 1961.

2. Whether the BCM's denial of enrolment of any candidate as an Advocate, who passed out from any Law College without its approval of affiliation is constitutionally valid?

3. Whether the BCM and Government of Mahapradesh are liable to refund the inspection fee collected with interest? The counsel for the parties may also refer the following for arguments:

A. The Advocates Act, 1961 and Functions and Powers of BCM are very much replica of The Advocates Act, 1961(India) and Bar Council of India Rules under Part IV.

B. The Advocates Act, 1961 and the Rules framed there under from time to time relating to Legal Education.

C. The University Grants Commission Act, 1956.

D. The Maharashtra Universities Act, 1994/ Maharashtra Public Universities Act, 2016 and the Reports of Law Commission of India.

on. (Art. 32)

4. The statement of facts

Mahapradesh is one of the States of the Union of Mahishmati, governed by Constitution similar to that of The Constitution of India. The State government decided to conduct CET for admission in to Law courses from the academic year 2016-17 onwards through Government Resolution No. 111 dated 01-01-2016 and informed all law colleges/Universities, which are offering law courses stating that the admission process for 1st year of 3 and 5 year LL.B Courses will be done through the CET known as 'Mahapradesh Common Entrance Test-Law'. The State Govt. also informed that the law colleges/Universities which are having Government Permission, University Affiliation and the Approval of The Bar Council of Mahishmati (hereinafter referred as BCM) are only being allotted candidates. The government through its circular directed all law colleges to obtain the necessary approvals from the respondent No.1, i.e., the BCM by remitting the prescribed inspection fee within the specified time.

Not being agreed with the rules of resolution 111 Mahapradesh Law college management Association filed a Writ Petition in the Hon'ble Supreme Court against BCM and the State of Mahapradesh and sought the relief of allotment of candidates to all Law Colleges which were duly permitted by the Government and Universities and further prayed to direct the BCM, and the State Government to refund the inspection fee collected by the BCM with interest and to declare that no approval is needed from the BCM.

The petitioner association contended that its Law Colleges cannot be compelled to get approval of BCM as there is no such statutory compulsion either under Mahishmati University Grants Commission Act, The Advocates Act, 1961 or Mahapradesh Universities Act, 1994 subsequently replaced with Mahapradesh Public Universities Act,2016. Further the BCM is not entitled to fix and collect the inspection fee without consulting the stakeholders. The petitioner's association expressed its serious concerns about the competency, integrity and honesty of Inspection Teams of BCM. Further it has contended that the statutory duties/functions of the BCM are to regulate the legal profession only. The respondent BCM has stated that it has derived the authority from The Advocates Act, 1961 and the Rules framed there under from time to time to regulate and maintain the standards of legal education. The respondent BCM further submitted that the students who are admitted and passed out from such colleges without approval from BCM will not be eligible or permitted to enroll as Advocates. It further stated that the petitioner and the State Government will have to face severe consequences for such unlawful admissions. The second respondent State Government categorically submitted its say stating that the respondent no.1 has no role to play except to confine to its functions as per Sec.7 (1) (h) (i) of The Advocates Act,1961. Further it has stated that during the pendency of the present Writ it has withdrawn the circular compelling the Law Colleges to obtain approval from the BCM.

5. Issues raised

i. Whether the Rules of Legal Education, 2008 framed by the BCM be declared null and void to the extent that they are in contradiction with the provisions of The Advocates Act, 1961.

-Yes your lordship

ii. Whether the BCM's denial of enrolment of any candidate as an Advocate, who passed out from any Law College without its approval of affiliation is constitutionally valid?

-No your lordship

iii. Whether the BCM and Government of Mahapradesh are liable to refund the inspection fee collected with interest?

-Yes your lordship

6. Summary of Arguments

Issue i : Whether the Rules of Legal Education, 2008 framed by the BCM be declared null and void to the extent that they are in contradiction with the provisions of The Advocates Act, 1961.

-Yes your lordship, the rules of legal education are null and void on the following ground.

The law colleges cannot be compelled to get approval of BCM as there is no such statutory compulsion either under Mahishmati University Grants Commission Act, 1956, The Advocates Act, 1961 or Mahapradesh Public University Act, 2016.

Issue ii: Whether the BCM's denial of enrollment of any candidate as an Advocate, who passed out from any Law College without its approval of affiliation is constitutionally valid?

-No your lordship, In Section 24 of Advocates Act, 1961 it is given that the person completed his Law Course from any University in India should be enrolled as Advocate. So the denial of the enrollment of any candidate as an advocate is invalid.

Issue iii : Whether the BCM and Government of Mahapradesh are liable to refund the inspection fee collected with interest?

-Yes your lordship, as the law colleges cannot be compelled to get approval by BCM the inspection fees remitted to BCM by the colleges should be returned with interest.

7. Arguments

i. Whether the Rules of Legal Education, 2008 framed by BCM are null and void.

There are many such provisions in the Rules of Legal Education, 2008 which can make it null and void. They are as follows

A) On the basis of approval of BCM to Law Colleges.

The compulsion to get the approval of BCM to all Law Colleges is invalid as no such provision either under Mahishmati University Grants Commission Act, 1956, The Advocates Act, 1961 or Mahapradesh University Act, 1994 subsequently replaced with Mahapradesh Public University Act, 2016.

The Rule 2(xxiv) of Rules of Legal Education is not valid as the Advocates Act, 1961 did not confer any power to the Bar Council to frame rules which would have retrospective effect.

The inclusion of permanent approval in the term "regular approval" under Rule 2 could not take away a right which has been vested in the college by virtue of a grant. Since the college has been given this status the same could not be taken away retrospectively.

The Rules are applicable to institutions which have been established after 2008 and will not affect those which came into force before the Rules of 2008 and have been permanently approved.

In the case of K. Sakthi Rani v. Secretary, Bar Council of Tamil Nadu, Chennai[1] it stated that the Rules of 2008 being a subordinate legislation needs to be construed as a prospective and unless the Act of 1961 has given such a power, no retrospective effect should be given.

B) On the basis of age limit for the admission of law courses.

Under rule 28 of Legal Education, 2008 the Bar Council of India rules that sets an upper age limit of 20 and 30 year for admission in five year and three year law courses respectively

The imposition of age limit to get admission in the education institutes appears to be violated of Article 14 of Indian constitution which provides for the fundamental right of equality to the citizens of the country however article 14 provides an exception in case where the classification among people is reasonable. the test to determine the reason ability of the classification is that it should be based on some intelligible differentia and there should be a reasonable Nexus between the act of classification and the objective required to be achieved. So the bar of maximum age for getting admission in education creates and unreasonable classification further the very purpose off legal education rules 2008 what's to ensure that all individuals willing to study law get the opportunity to pursue the same thus imposing the upper age limit to study law does not have reasonable Nexus with the object required to be achieved. Hence, it violates the principle of the right to equality.

ii: Whether the BCM's denial of enrolment of any candidate as an Advocate, who passed out from any Law College without its approval of affiliation is constitutionally valid?

The non-enrollment off the candidates as an advocate violates Article 19(1)(g) of the Indian Constitution which provides for the fundamental right to practice any profession the barrier imposed on enrollment of the candidates as an advocate makes it impossible for them to practice the law contradicting the right provided in Article 19(1)(g).

The non enrollment of candidate as an advocate also contradict the provision under the Advocates Act, 1956.

Section 24 of the act deals with the persons who may be admitted as Advocate on a State Roll. The relevant portion of Section 24 of the Act is extracted below:

"24. Persons who may be admitted as Advocates on a State roll. -Subject to the provisions of this Act, and the rules made thereunder, a person shall be qualified to be admitted as an Advocate on a State roll, if he fulfils the following conditions, namely,--

(a) he is a citizen of India;

(b) he has completed the age of twenty-one years;

(c) he has obtained a degree in law--

(iii) after the 12th day of March, 1967, save as provided in Sub-clause (iii-a), after undergoing a three year course of study in law from any University in India which is recognized for the purposes of this Act by the Bar Council of India; or

(e) he fulfils such other conditions as may be specified in the rules made by the State Bar Council under this chapter;

(f) he has paid in respect of the enrolment, stamp duty, if any, chargeable under the Indian Stamp Act, 1899 (2 of 1899), and an enrolment fee payable to the State Bar Council of two hundred and fifty rupees".

The Karnataka High Court in the case Smt. Manjula B.R. And Ors. Vs Karnataka State Bar Council [2] held that -

(i) The decision of the Enrolment Committee of the Karnataka State Bar Council refusing to admit the persons who have undergone three years law course from Rajiv Gandhi College of Law, Bangalore and obtained law degree from Bangalore University, is declared to be illegal and invalid.

(ii) Consequently, the Karnataka State Bar Council is directed to admit the petitioners as Advocates on its roll.

(iii) Wherever the petitioners have already been enrolled in pursuance of interim orders of this Court, such enrolment shall stand confirmed and the Bar Council of

[2]ILR 2002 KAR 1544, 2003 (2) KarLJ 380

India and the Karnataka State Bar Council shall not deny the petitioners any benefit flowing or arising from such enrolment, on the ground that the said College was not 'recognized' by the Bar Council of India.

As in above case the Karnataka Supreme Court directed the Karnataka Bar Council doing the role the advocates in its list the non enrollment off the candidates as an advocate who passed from Law Colleges without the approval of BCM is constitutionally invalid.

iii : Whether the BCM and Government of Mahapradesh are liable to refund the inspection fee collected with interest?

The rule 21 of the rules of Legal Education, 2008 define the term inspection fee as follows

Rule 21 Inspection fees - The Bar Council of India may prescribe inspection fees to be charged from time to time from each institutional applicants for the purpose of conducting inspection There may also be fees prescribed for inspection for providing accreditation of an institution. Such fees are provided in the Schedule IV of these rules and may be amended by Bar Council of India from time to time

As argued in issue I The compulsion to get the approval of BCM to the all law colleges is invalid as no such provision either under Mahishmati University Grand Commission Act, The Advocates Act, 1961 or MahaPradesh University Act, 1994 subsequently replaced with MahaPradesh Public University Act, 2016. So the inspection fees remitted to the BCM end the state government should be refunded with interest to colleges.

iv. It is also a serious issue about the competency integrity and honesty of the inspection team of the BCM. In the case Daulat ram Sharma vs CBI the accused person acting as associate managing the trustee pause Bar Council of India another acting as a public servant entered into criminal conspiracy with the vice chairman of swami Devi dayal law college demanded and accepted illegal gratification of Rs. 125000 for conducting and submitted favorable report by abusing their original positions.

8. Prayer

Therefore in the light of fact stated issue raised argument advanced it is most humbly prayed before the Hon'ble Supreme Court of Mahishmati that it may be graciously pleased there too adjudge and declare that:

i) the rules of legal education 2008 framed by the BCM are null and void.

ii) the denial of enrollment of any candidate as an advocate who passed out from any law college which is without the approval of BCM is constitutionally invalid.

iii) The BCM and The State of Mahapradesh are liable to refund the inspection fees collected by them with interest.

Also pass any other order that it may be deem fit in the favor of the petitioner in the light of equity justice and good conscience.

4. The statement of Facts

Mahapradesh is one of the States of the Union of Mahishmati, governed by Constitution similar to that of the Constitution of India. The government through its circular directed all law colleges to obtain the necessary approvals from the respondent No.1, i.e., the BCM by remitting the prescribed inspection fee within the specified time.

Not being agreed with the rules of resolution 111 Mahapradesh Law Colleges Management Association filed a Writ Petition in the Hon'ble Supreme Court against BCM and the State of Mahapradesh and sought the relief of allotment of candidates to all Law Colleges which were duly permitted by the Government and Universities and further prayed to direct the BCM, and the

The petitioner association contended that its Law Colleges cannot be compelled to get approval of BCM as there is no such statutory compulsion either under Mahishmati University Grants Commission Act, The Advocates Act, 1961 or Mahapradesh Universities Act, 1994 subsequently replaced with Mahapradesh Public Universities Act,2016. Further it has stated that during the pendency of the present Writ it has withdrawn the circular compelling the Law Colleges to obtain approval from the BCM.

5. Issues raised

i. Whether the Rules of Legal Education, 2008 framed by the BCM be declared null and void to the extent that they are in contradiction with the provisions of The Advocates Act, 1961.

-No your lordship.

ii. Whether the BCM's denial of enrolment of any candidate as an Advocate, who passed out from any Law College without its approval of affiliation is constitutionally valid?

-Yes your lordship.

iii. Whether the BCM and Government of Mahapradesh are liable to refund the inspection fee collected with interest?

-No your lordship.

6. Summary of Arguments

Issue 1 : Whether the Rules of Legal Education, 2008 framed by the BCM be declared null and void to the extent that they are in contradiction with the provisions of The Advocates Act, 1961.

-No your lordship,, the Bar Council of Mahishmati is a constitutional provision under the Advocates Act 1961. Under this act the BCM has powers to make rules, to promote the legal education and the standard of legal education and to do all other things which are necessary for the discharging the functions given in the Act so the rules of Legal Education framed by BCM are not null and void.

Issue ii. Whether the BCM's denial of enrolment of any candidate as an Advocate, who passed out from any Law College without its approval of affiliation is constitutionally valid?

-Yes your lordship, rule 3 of Legal Education grants a recognition of universities and approval of the colleges so it is constitutionally valid two non enrollment of candidates as an advocate who passed out from law colleges without it's approval.

Issue iii. Whether the BCM and Government of Mahapradesh are liable to refund the inspection fee collected with interest?

-No your lordship, the government and BCM is not liable to refund inspection fees collected by them as it has been charged from colleges to conduct the inspection which is provided under the BCM rules part IV.

7 Arguments

I) whether the Rules of Legal Education 2008 framed by BCM are null and void?

The Bar council of Mahishmati has several Functions to perform like to recognising the universities, to promote legal education and to lay down standard of such education under section 7 of advocates act 1961. To perform such functions the act also provided power to make the rule to BCM. The general power power of Bar Council of Mahishmati to make rules given the Advocate Act 1961 is as follow

Sec. 49 - general power bar council of India to make rules - (1) the bar council may make rule for discharging its function under this act and, in particular, such may rule prescribe

(af) the minimum qualification required for admission to the course of degree in law in any recognised University.

(ag) the class or category of person entitled to be enrolled as advocates

(d) the standard of legal education to be observed by university in India and the inspection of universities for that purpose.

So these all rules gives power to BCM to make new rules for its functions.

In the case Rashtrasant Tukdoji Maharaj and ANR V/s State of Maharashtra the high court of Bombay express its opinion about making new rules and held as follows-

- Upon reading the provisions of the Act of 1961 especially sections 7(1)(h), 24(1)(c)(iii) and (iii-a) along with section 49(1)(af)(ag) the Bar Council of India for the purpose of imparting legal education has been given the necessary power to prescribe rules to be observed by the Universities. This rule will include the power to modify existing rules to maintain and improve legal education standards.
- The Bar Council of India function are bound to evolve with the passage of time. e. Advocacy being a professional skill and the Bar Council of India being conferred the duty it has to take steps from time to time. The power conferred as per Section 49(1) of the Act of 1961 is to prescribe standards of legal education to Universities. Thus, Rule 2(xxiv) of the Rule of 2008 cannot be said to be beyond the powers of the Bar Council of India.

So the Rule of Legal Education 2008 framed by BCM is is not null and void.

II) Whether the denial of enrollment of candidates is as an advocate from law college without the approval of BCM is constitutionally valid?

As the advocacy Bing professional skill it is necessary to bar council to take steps from time to time for discharging its functions. For this purpose the BCM has framed rules of legal education 2008 which empowers it tu non enrollment of candidates who have completed their studies from the colleges without approval of BCM under rule 14. The rule 14 of legal education 2008 lays down-

14. Centres for Legal Education not to impart education without approval of Bar Council of India

(1) No Centres of Legal Education shall admit any student and impartinstruction in a course of study in law for enrolment as an advocate unless the recognition of the degree of the University or the affiliation of the Centres of Legal Education, as the case may be, has been approved by the Bar Council ofIndia after inspection of the University or Centres of Legal Education institutionconcerned as the case may be.

The section 7 (i) of advocates act 1961 Also empowers the BCM to recognise University for enrollment of advocates.

Sec 7(i) - to recognise Universities whose degree in law shall be qualification for enrolment as an advocate and for that purpose to visit and inspect

Universities [or cause the State Bar Councilsto visit and inspect Universities in accordance with such directions as it may give in this behalf];

The bar council also publish the list of names of colleges approved by it on the website so now a days it is easy to find out the colleges which are approved and the courses which are allowed by BCM.

III) Whether the BCM and government of maha pradesh are liable to refund the inspection fee collected with interest?

As the inspection fees are remitted for the purpose of inspection under the rule of legal education 2008. The rule number 21 describe the inspection fees as follows

21 Inspection fees-The Bar Council of India may prescribe inspection fees to be charged fromtime to time from each institutional applicants for the purpose of conductinginspection

There may also be fees prescribed for inspection for providing accreditationof an institution. Such fees are provided in the Schedule IV of these rules andmay be amended by Bar Council of India from time to time.

It is important to inspect the colleges time to time as it might be possible the colleges which are not approved by BCM may conduct the courses. So far these inspections the inspection fee is necessary and either approval given or not there is no such kind of provision under any -act for refund of inspection fees.

so BCM and government of mahapradesh not liable to refund the fees.

8.prayer

Therefore in the light of facts stated issue raised argument advanced it is most humbly prayed before the Honorable Supreme Court of Mahishmati that it may be graciously pleased there to adjudge and declare that:

i) The Rule of Legal Education 2008 framed by BCM are not null and void ii)The denial of enrollment of candidate as an advocate who passed out from a law college which is without the approval of BCM is constitutionally valid

iii) The BCM and state of Mahapradesh not liable to refund inspection fees.

also pass any other order that it may be deemed fit in the favour of respondent in the light of equity justice and good conscience.
